

Date	Venue	Walk Leaders	Details
10 January 2018	The Who'd A Thought it, Glastonbury	Mike Green	A 3.5 to 4.0 mile walk across fields to the river Brue. Only 1 stile and 1 hill.
07 February 2018	The Unicorn. Somerton	Bob & Pat Steele	A 2.0 hour (3.5 miles) walk on footpaths, across fields, through woodland and on some minor roads south and east of Somerton. 2 Stiles, 9 small gates, 1 flight of steps. Some muddy sections.
21 February 2018	The Quicksilver Mail, Yeovil	Nick Ham	The walk is mainly around Nine Springs and surrounding area, no styles, approximately 4.0 miles. Only one short steep hill, apart from that a gentle walk. It should be a nice walk and even has waterfalls!
07 March 2018	Stourhead Estate	John & Jenny Clare	Our easy walk of 4/5 miles, avoiding any stiles, takes us through the fine scenery of the Stourhead Estate,
21 March 2018	The Castle of Comfort, East Harptree	Peter & Brenda King	Starts at East Harptree Wood car park on the B3135, at 10:30. 4.0 mile Mendip walk, several stiles, and likely to be muddy in places.
18 April 2018	The Red Lion, West Pennard	Sandra Tucker	A 4.5 mile walk from West Pennard. A fairly steep climb to the top of Pennard Hill then a flat walk around fields and country lanes, taking in the views across Worthy Farm ( festival site ) There could be one short wet section. Only one stile.
16 May 2018	The Who'd A Thought it, Glastonbury	Philippa Chapman	Walk including ascent and descent of Windmill Hill. If there has been good weather, the route up will include 3 stiles across field. If inclement, no stiles. Dog friendly
30 May 2018	Strode Arms, Cranmore	John Mizen	A 2.5 hour circular walk to Cranmore Tower and return.
13 June 2018	The Castlebrook Inn, Compton Dundon	Fiona Cruse & Sandy Baird	Approximately a 4.5 mile circular walk for about 2 - 2.5 hours up around and over Lollover Hill, near Compton Dundon, with lovely views over the levels and to the hills beyond. This will include one or two steepish sections up and down so if you need walking sticks, please bring them along. There is one stile on route.
27 June 2018	Half Moon Inn, Sherborne	John & Jenny Clare	Our route starts at the mediaeval church (two links with previous walks), passes the lavatorium, then proceeds along a most attractive street of old houses. We skirt past the Old Castle then follow a private lane into the countryside. We eventually take an uphill path to a Deer Park and splendid woodland, walk through Little Poland, keeping Jerusalem on our right and then have a fine view of the New Castle, its lake and Park looking back to where a rude awakening befell its owner, a colourful but tragic 'pirate'.
25 July 2018	The Rose & Portcullis, Butleigh	Bob and Pat Steele	About 5 miles (2.5 hrs) along country lanes, farm tracks, woodland paths and across fields. We pass an ancient cross with views to the Mendips and discover a memorial to a vicar's son in the woodland. One or two stiles. Walking boots recommended.
08 August 2018	King Alfred Inn, Burrowbridge	Kevin & Sharon Lawton	Flat walk on drove around Burrowbridge. Through hamlet of Pathe, across meadows and back along the bank of the river Parrett. 4.5 miles, no stiles.

22 August 2018	The Burcott Inn, Burcott, Wells	Richard Frost & Janet Gould	4 mile walk, flat to start with and then a bit of hill. Over fields and lanes.
05 September 2018	The Langport Arms, Langport	Rod and Dorreen Kerr	Park in the large free public car park next to the pub and order food. Then we'll drive up to Curry Rivel to start the walk. Circular walk from Sandpits car park to Burton Pynsent monument
19 September 2018	The Manor House Inn, Wraxall Rd, Ditcheat	Bob and Pat Steele	Ditcheat towards Lamyatt - circular walk. Parking by the pub is limited please share lifts if possible. 5 mile fairly level walk along roads, pathways and fields – some uneven ground, cows & several stiles. Walking footwear recommended.
03 October 2018	Wookey Hole Inn, Wookey Hole	Carol and Neil Titchener	We will be starting at the Wookey Hole Inn and heading up over the hill in the direction of Wells and finally coming down through Ebber Gorge. This is quite a hilly walk with a handful of stiles on the top of the hill. There are also steps on the downward path from the Gorge. Parking is limited at the inn but you can park under the wall by the church. The walk is just over 4 miles.
17 October 2018	The Street Inn, Street	Fiona Cruse	A circular 5 mile walk (can be shorter if required) along lanes and over fields. There is one stile and 2 footbridges, one of which is a narrow plank over a small stream. A couple of fields can be quite rough underfoot due to grazing cattle, so bring walking poles if needed. Could be wet underfoot if we have had rain.
14 November 2018	The Helyar Arms, East Coker	Bob and Pat Steele	Circular 4.5 mile fairly level walk along roads, pathways and fields – some uneven and muddy stretches and 3 stiles. Some historical interest and far reaching views. Walking footwear recommended.
12 December 2018	The Olive Mill		Christmas lunch
09 January 2019	George & Pilgrims, Glastonbury	Philippa Chapman	Easy-ish walk with historical info around Glastonbury on pavements, etc
23 January 2019	The Admirals Landing, Bridgwater	Fiona Cruse	Historic Bridgwater walk. A flat circular walk of about 2 hours taking in the Docks, Canal and some aspects of the town. The pub does a Wednesday carvery at £7.95 (£6.95 for OAPs)
06 February 2019	Half Moon Inn, Sherborne	John & Jenny Clare	This is a short easy winter walk through history, linking Saxon, Norman, later mediaeval times, the Reformation, the Civil War and beyond, right up to 20 th and 21 st century film sets.
20 February 2019	The Quicksilver Mail, Yeovil	Nick Ham	A walk around Nine Springs and surrounding area, Yeovil. The walk is only about 2-3 miles and is quite easy: some roads and made up paths; no stiles around the park. It's more about the scenery, waterfalls and ponds.
06 March 2019	The Cobb Arms, Lyme Regis	Andrew & Lisa Hoskins	A pretty walk from Uplyme down to Lyme Regis involving a few gates, and the chance to do a little beach-combing! .

20 March 2019	The Castlebrook Inn, Compton Dundon	Bob and Pat Steele	Circular 4 mile walk from Compton Dundon goes up over Collard (Street) Hill and passes Ivythorn Manor. The walk has an ascent near the start, a few stiles and follows lanes and footpaths some of which could be muddy. Walking boots are recommended.
03 April 2019	The Street Inn, Street	Ron & Gail Heal	A level walk to Clyce Hole, continuing from there along the River Brue to Sharpham and then back to Street. The walk takes 2-2 1/2 hours with some stiles to negotiate, It could be muddy after rain.
17 April 2019	The Bath Arms, Cheddar	Kevin & Sharon Lawton	A 5 mile flat walk around Cheddar Reservoir. Please be aware that there is no shelter at all from rain and wind, so do come prepared accordingly.
01 May 2019	The Quarry Inn, Keinton Mandeville	Sandra Tucker	Approximately 4 miles covering Keinton Mandeville, West Lydford and Barton St David. A level walk with a slight incline towards the end. Approx 5 stiles to climb.
15 May 2019	The Camelot Pub, South Cadbury	Bob and Pat Steele	Starting from Cadbury Castle (with an option to walk around it after lunch) passing the site of the medieval village of Whitcombe to the Beacon trig point with far reaching views. Then over Corton Hill to Corton Denham and back to South Cadbury via Corton Ridge and Parrock Hill.
29 May 2019	The Halfway House, Pitney	Carol and Neil Titchener	4.8 miles to the North side of Pitney. Walking boots recommended as there are some muddy places. A few stiles but no steep climbs.
12 June 2019	Ring O'Bells, Ashcott	Sandra Tucker	We will drive to Ashcott Road in Meare and park in private facilities. From Ashcott Road we will head towards Stileway across farmland. There could be cattle in some fields along the way. Along river banks there could be long grass/nettles in places. Approximately 4 miles of flat walking. 3 stiles.
10 July 2019	The George Inn, Croscombe	Fiona Cruse	We will walk from Croscombe to Dinder across fields (possibly with cattle) climbing up over the hill and looping around to come back down through woods to Dinder before returning to the pub. There are some good views and varied terrain (field tracks, lanes and minor roads) with mainly gated stiles. Mud is possible if we have had rain and there may be long grass as well One lane is quite steep.
24 July 2019	The Brent Knoll Inn, East Brent	Rod and Dorreen Kerr	This is a climbing walk to the top of Brent Knoll, so be prepared for steep uphill/downhill sections but great views from the summit! One stile only.
07 August 2019	The Lime Kiln Inn, Near Long Sutton	Bob and Pat Steele	A walk of approx 4 miles on lanes, tracks and fields. We pass through the hamlet of Knole. One short, steep climb up Knole Hill for views over south Somerset. A few stiles and, depending on the weather, there could be some muddy sections – walking boots and a change of footwear recommended.